

CHAPTER 4

WILLIAM WILLIAMS

Chapter 1 proved that Roderick Williams and Elizabeth Evans had a son named William Williams, christened 21 Mar 1779. Chapter 2 proved that William had a wife named Ann and at least three children: Elizabeth, Roderick and Mary Williams. This chapter will fill out the family of William and Ann Williams.

Elizabeth Price	Head	Wid		66	Pauper	Llandilofane Brecon
Jane Prytherch	Sister	Unm		52	General workwoman	Do	Do
Rees Evans	Nephew		12		Scholar	Do	Do

Explanation: No. 2 Upper Village was a house called Craig-y-felin in Llandeilo'r-fân Village. Elizabeth Price, widow of Rees Price (Exhibit 16), was the daughter of William & Ann Williams christened on 20 Sep 1807 (Exhibit 15). Rees Evans was the youngest child of Elizabeth's deceased sister Mary Evans (Exhibits 25 and 26). This census record indicates that Elizabeth Price had an unmarried sister named Jane Prytherch. According to this census record, Jane was born in 1818-1819. However, the age of Elizabeth Price is off by three years (She was only 63), so this may not be the best indication of Jane's age.

Application: Although circumstantial evidence shows that Jane Prytherch was close to the family of William & Ann Williams (Exhibits 22 and 28-30), this is the most direct evidence that she was their daughter. There is, however, no record of her being christened. It's possible that she was adopted. There are some indications that she may have been a troubled soul, maybe mentally or physically challenged. She was sometimes called Jane Williams and sometimes Jane Prytherch. She had a daughter out of wedlock (Exhibit 28), but she did not raise the child (Exhibits 29 and 30). The census records are inconsistent as to her age and place of birth. Here is a summary of her census records:

1841	Glanrhosen, Cilycwm, Carmarthenshire	Jane Williams	20-24	Agricultural Female Servant	not in Carmarthenshire
1851	Dderw-fawr, Llandeilo'r-fân	Jane Prytherch	30	House Servant	Llandeilo'r-fân, Breconshire

Explanation: In the 1841 census, the ages of people over 15 were rounded down to the nearest multiple of five. The Y stands for Yes to the question whether a person was born in the county where he or she was enumerated. Therefore:

- Roderick Williams, age 25-29, was a Farmer born in Breconshire (1811-1816).
- William Williams, age 60-64, was born in Breconshire (1776-1781).
- Ann Williams, age 60-64, was born in Breconshire (1776-1781).
- Margaret Price, age 15-19, was a Female Servant born Breconshire (1821-1826).
- Rees Price, age 13, was a Male Servant born in Breconshire (1827-1828).
- Ann Powell, age 5 months, was a Nursing Child born in Breconshire (1840-1841).

Prior exhibits can fill in some detail:

- Roderick Williams, son of William Williams & Ann Price, was christened 10 Feb 1811 Llandeilo'r-fân (Exhibit 19).
- William Williams, son of Roderick Williams & Elizabeth Evans was christened 21 Mar 1779 Llandeilo'r-fân (Exhibit 5).
- Ann Price Williams, daughter of Rees Price & Elizabeth Jones (married 18 Jul 1779), was christened 15 Oct 1779 Llandeilo'r-fân (see Exhibit 5).
- Margaret Price may or may not have been related.
- Rees Price may or may not have been related.
- Ann Powell, daughter of Thomas Powell & Jane Williams, was christened 31 Jan 1841 Llandeilo'r-fân (Exhibit 28).
