

night, the next day they came down to see us, and Mother invited them to stay us, which they did and remained just one week. Bro.

Thomas and his son Jenkins got employment at Rowe's Boot and shoe shop, and have rented a house from Bro. John Parny, where they moved yesterday. They are fixed quite comfortable for a beginning. We done as much as we could to help them along.

Bro. Gill handed the enclosed letter for Bro. Matthews, to him. He was proud of the present you sent him, and showed it to all they "boys". Eli wishes you to par-down him for not writing to you oftener, as he is very busy of late. He has charge of the construction of a large new foundry for Pierpont. It is to be a large two story building, 143 feet long and 43 feet wide, with 75 windows.

Eli is well and hearty, and wish to be kindly remembered to you.

The baby is well and growing fast, and will soon be able to walk. All the folks that comes from there say he looks like his uncle Walter. I hope he will grow up to be like him in his actions and ways as well as looks.

We are all well, and I conclude with sending our kindest love to you," "R. A. Folland"

My Dear Brother, I received your kind and welcome letter some time ago, and was indeed pleased to hear from you.

I received a letter lately from Eli and Rachel in which they enclosed their photos, which are very good. I also enclose the likenesses of myself and little children to you. We had them taken when in Salt Lake City the same time as the rest of the folks.

Please write to me again as soon as you can. A letter from you Dear Brother is a great source of joy and comfort to me. Charley was much interested in your travels and labors. He works away from home all the time, thus rendering it a little lonesome for me.

We received the little presents you sent us all right, and are very proud of them. The little girls are much pleased with the ties. They often talk of you, and wish they could see their uncle Walter.

Dear Brother when I was up at the old home, and walking around the garden where we had spent so many hours together in childish games and amusements, how I longed to see the old familiar face, and have the pleasure of grasping your hand once more.

Write soon and give me all the news you can of your labors and travels. May the Lord bless you. Your

Elder W. J. Lewis,
Dear Bro.

The 200 tracts I forward you by mail this date. I take pleasure in noting your mode of procedure in traveling preaching, distributing tracts &c. &c. it is very commendable and will tell in your favor, and to the glory of our Father's Kingdom.

God bless you. Brethren— I say it from the fullness of my heart. He will bless you, con-tinue as you have begun.

Your Brother "

Elders Wm. N. Williams and W.
J. Lewis, Beloved Brethren:— Your splendid little favor of the 22nd inst. we have just received, affording us great joy in its perusal; to learn that you were getting along and doing so well, was the greatest gratification we have felt for some time.
It is very pleasing to me to hear that you have been so successful.

We have ever prayed specially for your success, and I am very glad that you enjoy so fully the Spirit of your mission. You will find that to be your greatest joy, there is no greater joy in this world, than that which the Spirit of God brings to His faithful servant, however humble he be. Boys, I am proud of you; you are doing splendidly, I cannot commend you to highly. Keep on doing well, do all the good you can, and when you are safely through your missions here, you will look back upon the "North Wales trip" as the crowning effort of your missions.
Be humble before your heavenly Father, give <sup>him</sup> all the praise, honor and glory and He will delight to bless you, and you will have as much of His Spirit as you can contain, and will feel good all the time. I realize more and more that we boys are highly favored in being out here under so favorable circumstances, and so much blessed of the Lord. We have a great deal to be thankful for, and I see it more and more every day. And if we are faithful, our missions here will qualify us for greater usefulness in the Zion, we shall be better able to "save" the great and growing work of the Latter Day dispensation, and thus do better justice to our callings as Elders in Israel.

Bro. George is doing splendidly, about as good to Saints as outsiders, and doesn't over do "admonition" either. We are both feeling splendidly. Thirty min. going from this conference, Sp. 14 ship.

Our Con. will be a poor concern when these Saints are gone, but will have to do the best we can this winter.

We got a good letter from Bro B. and go this morning. He speaks very encouragingly. He will be down soon.
We intend having a Con. in Mentlyn on Sunday 8 Sept., which he says he will try and attend. We are trying to get up a good thing of it. A Concert to follow Monday the 9th. We wish you could be here too. But that is out of the possibles just now this time.
But will remember you. You must not let William think that he is going home this fall. There are very few going, and I am pretty sure they like us 'welsh boys' too well, to let us go home for a long while yet. But better be kept here 'cause we are good, than sent home 'cause we are bad. Accept very kind love and good feelings from us both.

We ever pray God to bless you.

Yours very truly in the New and Everlasting Covenant"

"Joseph Hyrum Paauy."

Emily's letters were long and intensely interesting, containing a variety of well written items and full of love and devotion. Her epistles are a source of great joy and comfort to me.

Bro. Henry's letter, as usual, contained items of important news carefully and studiously written.

Elder Jos. Bull jr. stated in his letter that his parents were intending to leave for home with the October company of emigrants. He was well in health and enjoying his labors in his new field of the ministry.

Elder Thos. F. Howells wrote from Keyland, Pembrokeshire, from the house of Bro. Davis. He reported the Saints all well, and that he and Bro. Jones had held quite a number good open air meetings in that country. We were pleased to hear from our Brethren and fellow-laborers in the ministry, and to learn of their wellbeing &c.

We called in the afternoon on our friends, Morris Williams and wife in 30 Baptist St., where we had tea and spent a few hours in pleasant chat. In the evening we went out to hold another open air meeting.

We procured the chair we used on previous evenings, and placed it by the fountain by the Square in centre of the town. The clouds over head were thick, and gave every appearance of an immediate fall of rain, and in fact there was a small spirkling when Bro. Williams mounted the chair, but it soon stoped and when Bro had got half way through his sermon, the clouds had considerably dispersed and the atmosphere rendered clearer. I followed him taking up the restoration of the Gospel and its organization in our day, also giving the fruits of the Latter Day Saints in Utah. The congregation was not large, but was orderly and attentive throughout. The policemen and others that were desirous of listening to our remarks, were efficient in procuring quietness and order. We distributed tracts as usual after the close of our meeting.

We returned to our hotel and spent the balance of the evening reading our Stars and news papers.

Carravon, August, 31st In the morning we called and had breakfast with Mr. Williams, after that we took a stroll through the Town - called at Mr. Humphreys art gallery and procured some views of North Wales, mostly photos. of Castle ruins. By courtesy of Mr. Humphreys, the proprietor, we were shown through the whole of his large and handsome building, which is a complete Art Bazar, it contains a printing and publishing department complete from the type Foundry to the book binding, including Sterotyping and lithography. There is also a large Fine Art gallery embracing photography, portrait and landscape painting in all its branches. The lower floors of the building are used for the show rooms and

Sales rooms for the products of the institution, together with a Stationary department. Mr. Humphreys stated that he was a poor boy of humble parentage and that he commenced as an apprentice to the printing profession, and having a taste for the business, and a strong desire to become a publisher, he worked attentively and patiently to accomplish his ends. He is the owner of the entire business, which he has created by his energy and unflagging industry. This shows another of the many results of constant application accompanied with patience perseverance and true energy. Humphreys says, though
