Packet Ship "S. CURLING," Captain Curling, 1898 Tons Register, to sail from Liverpool for Boston April 19th, 1856.

36 Islington, Liverpool.

March 28 1856.

DEAR Bro

I have chartered the fine American Packet ship "S. CURLING," to sail with a load of Passengers from Liverpool for Boston on Saturday, the NINETEENTH DAY OF APRIL, 1856.

Applicants for passage herein named are requested to be in Liverpool on MONDAY, the FOURTEENTH DAY OF APRIL, namely:

NAME.	AGE.	NAME.	AGE.
 Rufus Lewis

Let no persons who know themselves to have been exposed to, and thereby liable to be taken down with, the Small-pox, Measles, or other contagious disorders, come forward for embarkation. Such as do this jeopardize their own lives, and sow death among all in the ship—incurring a most fearful responsibility.

FARES.

Adults	- - - - -	£5 0 0
Children under EIGHT years and over ONE year old	- - - - -	4 10 0
Infants under ONE year old	- - - - -	0 10 0

THE FOLLOWING WEEKLY SCALE OF PROVISIONS WILL BE ALLOWED TO EACH STATUTE ADULT.

- | | | |
|------------------|-----------------|-----------------|
| 3½ lbs. BREAD, | 1½ lb. RICE, | 2 oz. SALT, |
| 1½ lbs. OATMEAL, | 1½ lb. PEAS, | ½ oz. MUSTARD, |
| 1 lb. PORK, | 2 lb. POTATOES, | ½ oz. PEPPER, |
| 1½ lb. BEEF, | 1 lb. SUGAR, | 1 gill VINEGAR. |
| 1 lb. FLOUR, | 2 oz. TEA, | |

THREE QUARTS WATER DAILY.

HALF the above amounts to CHILDREN UNDER EIGHT YEARS AND OVER ONE YEAR OLD.

This will be about sufficient for the passengers during the voyage; if, however, they should want more, or a greater variety, they must supply themselves therewith.

Ten Gallons of water for every hundred persons will be supplied for cooking.

Passengers must furnish their own beds and bedding. A straw mattress will answer very well for sleeping upon when passengers do not bring feather or other beds with them.

A Box or Barrel to hold provisions, and the following utensils for Cooking, &c., will be necessary—Boiler, Saucepan, Frying-pan, Tin porringer, Tin plate, Tin dish, Knife, Fork and Spoon, and a Tin Vessel to hold 3 quarts of Water for each adult.

I shall commence to book the passengers on MONDAY the FOURTEENTH, and all should have their passage paid in full by the evening of Wednesday, as several entire lists of names and ages must be made out according to law, before the ship can receive her clearance. A neglect of this instruction will put the passengers and myself to great inconvenience. No persons will be permitted to receive their berths until they have procured their tickets; therefore let none delay procuring their tickets longer than WEDNESDAY, the SIXTEENTH.

Let no persons bring their luggage to my office, as I have no room for it, but on receiving their Tickets, the passengers will be informed when they can go on Ship-board, with their luggage.

Those passengers who forward luggage by the Luggage Trains, should be careful to send it on a few days before they leave for Liverpool, and it will then arrive about the same time as themselves. Their first care, after securing their "Passengers' Contract Ticket," should be to seek after their luggage, and if it should not have arrived, make complaint to the Chief Clerk of the luggage department, who will see that it is forthcoming immediately. In order to facilitate the forwarding of luggage, the passengers should be careful to state upon it the names of the various railways it may have to pass over, if more than one, and also to say, "To be left at the Station, in Liverpool." The emigrants can obtain all necessary information to carry out the foregoing instructions from the clerks at the railway stations in their own towns or villages. Let all persons sending luggage be careful to obtain a receipt for it from the person to whom they deliver it. That which is to arrive in Liverpool by the London and North Western Railway should be addressed to the Waterloo Station "until called for." All that can possibly be spared during the voyage should be marked "To go below," that it may be put into the hold of the ship. Only that which is absolutely necessary during the voyage should be retained on deck.

The ship will be found in the WATERLOO DOCK until Wednesday the Sixteenth of April, when all passengers with their luggage should be aboard to remain.

On arriving in Liverpool, either by Railway or Steam-packet, emigrants are beset by persons who endeavour to draw them away to various LODGING HOUSES, and not unfrequently to where they are eventually ROBBED OF ALL THEY POSSESS. This has recently been remedied to some extent by the present Passenger Act, which requires all "Emigrant Runners" to be licensed, and to wear a badge while employed with emigrants, and prohibits them from asking or receiving any remuneration from the emigrants themselves. I would, however, advise all my Passengers not to employ even these persons, (except A. Chapman, the number of whose badge is 381,) but to repair at once to the places named below. Should they need any assistance in finding the places, the policemen, or any respectable individual in the streets, will direct them.

Anthony Chapman, 35 Great Crosshall Street.

William Powell, 63 Do.

Eliza Burnett, 72 Do.

Each about five minutes' walk from the London and North Western, the Lancashire and Yorkshire, and East Lancashire Railway Stations.

C. Dillman, Emigrants' Home, Moorfields;
Opposite the Lancashire and Yorkshire and East Lancashire Railway Stations.

It would be advantageous for the emigrants to arrange by letter, or otherwise, with the above-named houses before coming themselves. Parties coming in companies would do well to send some one to Liverpool in advance to procure the lodgings, when the President of the Conference or the Pastor does not come to do it.

Passengers while in port, and getting on Ship-board, should use every precaution to preserve their health, by being suitably clad, and comfortably supplied with food. Many inconveniences must necessarily be endured, but all unnecessary exposure and hunger should be avoided. Let parents be particularly mindful of their children in this respect, and see that they do not suffer, and perhaps die, from neglect. Diseases and infirmities are often entailed upon the human system by not properly providing for its natural wants, and from pure inattention. These hints, if observed, will not only tend to preserve health, but good feelings, and promote the happiness of all.

A Committee will be appointed to preserve cleanliness and good order during the voyage.

There is NO NECESSITY for changing ENGLISH GOLD into AMERICAN MONEY.

No persons should come to Liverpool with an expectation that there will be room for them on my ships, unless they have been duly notified to come, for in so doing, they might be disappointed, and make themselves unnecessary expense.

Yours, most respectfully,

FRANKLIN D. RICHARDS.
