

miles. From here I walked to Bro.
John Jones "Cross Oak," Brecon-
-shire.

The evening being fine, Bro.
Jones and I took a walk to a neighboring village and notified the people that we were go-ing to have an open air mee-ting and in a few minutes we had a congregation. I borrowed a chair, gave Br. Jones my -tract, and commenced with read-ing the 3rd Chap. of Matthew and occupied forty minutes speak-ing on the first principles of the Gospel etc. after which I returned to Bro. Jones' again where I stayed over night.

Talybont, Breconshire, 6th June.

Took the nine o'clock to Dolau-tau's Top, and from there walked to Merthyr, and received letters at Ed. Joseph's from Presb. Jos. H. Parry and Luke Bezzant. Walked in the afternoon to the Hafod W. Pontypriidd, thus making a total of eighteen miles, walked during the day. After half an hour's rest; together with Saints of the branch held a good open air meeting. Felt better speaking, than at any previous outdoor meeting.

Hafod, W. Pontypriidd, 7th June.

Spent the fore part of the day at Bro. John D. Evans', replying to some letters that he had received from L— post and Logan Cache Co. Utah.

Called at Bro. Galt's and from there walked to Hato (Upward), and called at old friend Jenslyn Thomas where a few pleasant hours were spent in social chit-chat.

Upward, Rhonda, 8, June

antly reading and writing.
Wrote letters to Pres. Parry and Luke Bezzant.

Went up to Treorkey in the evening, and remained over with Bro. David Morgan

Treorkey, Monday, June 9.
Met in Council with the branch in the morning. I also attended afternoon and evening meetings, all of which I addressed.

Visited Bro. Edwin Street who is still suffering much from the severe accident he received in the Colliery over a year and a half ago.

Stayed with Bro. Morgan again. Lost much sleep during the night from severe toothache, caused by catching cold.

Treorkey, Monday June 10
Walked down to Upton and wrote a letter in Bro. Thomas' to my Sister Lerriva.

I left a 3-30 for Pordoglan; rode to Newbridge and from there walked to my destination, a distance of 8 miles. I stayed over night with Bro. Jenkyn's family.

Perrydon, Tuesday June 11.

Received letters this morning from Thos. F. Howells, Mary and Parry and a postal card from Pres. Parry.

After spending a little time with the family and giving them necessary instruction regarding their getting ready to leave Et., I left for Mersby, walking to Portypridd and waiting from there in.

I called at Bro. Joseph's and found letters from Eli A. Follans and Agnes Kate Walsh. I stayed over night at Sister Edwards, Hedgerig.

Hedgerig, Wednesday 12 June

Wrote a letter to Bro. Jos. H. Parry and walked down to Merthyr; called at Bro. Joseph's and received a letter from Bro. Joseph H. Parry, in which was enclosed $5. in gold, which was sent by my Brother Henry as a birth day present through Rev. B. Emery. I also received a Post-Office order from Mother to the amount of £ 2-4-9.

Wrote a letter to Agnes Kate Walsh, enclosing P. O. order for two trunks that she had sent to me for Bro. Thos. Jones.

Hedgerig, Merthyr June 13. 1878.
Arose at a P. O. clock, feeling quite unwell with the toothache, having only rested three hours the whole of the night.

I spent the whole of the day at Bro. Thos. Jones Dyffris, helping the family to pack up goods and match boxes &c.

Received a postal Card in the evening from Bro. Parry, instructing me to remain in the vicinity of Neath to assist the Saints in getting ready for to leave with the June 29 Company.
Bro. and Elder Emery would meet them at L-pool, but in the mean time would travel and preach in North Wales.

After the luggage was all packed up, weighed and ready to leave, I left for Abel Gerrig where I stayed for the night.

Wolgering, Merthyr, 14 June.

Met Bro. Jones and family at the Station and left with the 9-10 train for L-pool via Birkenhead.

At Inghams yard we met Ss. Pugh and daughter; at Rhymney Junction met Ss. Parry; at Pontypool Rd. met Bro. Jenkins and family and at Abergavenny met Bro. Bezzant's two little girls. I got off at this station and went to Bro. Bezzant's 11 Tudor St., where I wrote two letters one to Pres. Parry and the other to Elder W. H. Williams. Feeling tired and sleepy and a little unwell I retired to bed a little early.

Garn diffaith, Tuesday, 18. June.

Wrote four Postal cards to branches announcing meetings for the week, and also a letter to Bro. R. Johnson Hereford, stating that I would call on him on Friday the 28 when on the way towards I-pore with saints emigrating with the next company.

Attended prayer meeting in the evening at Sister Washin's, Garn.

Garnediffaith Wed., 19 June.

Received two letters this morning—one from Jos. A. Parry and one from G. R. Em I wrote a reply to Bro. Parry's at once to 42 Islington.

I left at noon and walked over the mountain to Abertillery and ate dinner with Bro. Scott. I saw Bro. John Devereaux, and handed him a note from his father dated New York 5th containing news of the arrival of the first Am. that left May 25.

I walked from here to Pantyge and called at 1 Lyon St. to see my Cousin David. I saw his wife and two little boys and spent the afternoon with them. In the evening Cousin David arrived from work by the 6 o'clock train from Ebbwale, where he is employed in the steel works. This was the first privilege I had of seeing my cousin. He and his wife were very pleased to see me, and urged me call again as soon as possible. He is a young man of average intelligence and an extraordinary singer. He has several prizes that he has won by competition amongst which is a silver cup. He is the son of my mother's sister Hannah and is two months younger than I am.

While here I wrote a letter to Bro. David R. Gill, giving him instructions regarding his getting ready to emigrate with the next conv. &c.

I left at 7 o'clock for Ebbw. Cousin accompanied me over the mountain.

I spent the evening at Uncle Davis; where I found all in good health Etc.

Ebbvale, Thursday, 20 June 1848

Called at Bro. Ed. Roberts in the morning and received two letters from Pres Parry, requesting to go to Mentyn at once and notify Ss. Jane Jones and Son, and Mrs. Edmunds and five children to get ready to leave by 29 June Company, for Salt-Lake. I walked to Mentyn calling at Fredegar to tell them that I could not meet with them that evening, I also wrote a Card to Rlymney apprising them of of the same. I saw the two families and wrote to the Pres: at once.

I attended meeting with the Branch in the evening.

Stayed over night at Heulgerig

Heulgerig, Friday June 21.

I spent the whole of the day in Bro. Edward Joseph's, reading and writing.

In the afternoon Bros. Thos. F. and John G. came in from Merthy, and together we held a large open air meeting in Pentra Bach, where we had attention and civility.

I lodged in Mrs. Lewis' next door the "Cross Keys" inn.

Merthy Saturday, June 22nd.

Passed the fore part of the day in Bro. Joseph's and wrote two letters one to Bro. Elias Morris, and one to brother-in-law Eli. A. Folland.

In the afternoon I went to Abolgerig, where I also stayed over night.

Abolgerig, Northyr, 23 June Got up early in the morning and called at Bro. Joseph's and received a letter from Elder W. N. Williams from Swansea. Walked to the Trede-yrhiw Station and took train for Pontypridd and from there I walked to Hafod. Held communion meeting with the Branch at 2 p.
and a good open air meeting in front of Bro. Gill's house at 7-30 p.m.

Stayed over night at Bro. John Daniel's.

Hafod, Pontypriidd, Mon, June 24.

Walked down to Bro. Gill's and finished a letter that I had commenced to Bro. Parry.

Towards the evening I walked to Treorkey, and got there just too late to join in an out-door meeting with Bro. Jones & Howell. I slept at Bro. David Morgan's.

Treorkey, Tuesday, June 25

Spent the forenoon in Bro. Thomas reading Elder O. Spencers' letters.

Bought a pair of shoes from Bro. Thomas - price 1/6.

In the afternoon Bro. Jones and I took a walk to Treorkey and called at Bro. Roderick Davis.

In the evening Bro. A. J. Jones the Town "Crier" announced that three Gentlemen from Salt Lake City would deliver some remarks on "Mormonism" &c. in the United Colliery School Room at 8 o'clock. We met at the appointed time and found one of the class rooms full of strangers.

The meeting was addressed by Bros. Jentyn Thomas, John G. Jones, Thos. F. Howells and myself.

After the close of the meeting, I spent a couple hours at Bro. A. J. Jones' workshop and packed and assisting him to get things ready to leave for Utah on Friday morning.

Treorky, Wednesday, June 27

Spent the day at Bro. Jentyn Thomas' who was also getting ready to emigrate with the June 29 Com.

In the afternoon Bro. Jones, Howells and I walked to Hofod, calling on Sister who was recently, with her little boy, baptized into the Church.

We held the largest open air meeting of the season in front of Gill's Gt. Western Houses, it was addressed by Bro. J. G. Jones, J. F. Howells, John R. Young and myself. Bro. Gill and J. D. Evans at the close of the meeting bore their farewell testimonies to the divinity of the work, as they were going to leave for Gion by the 29 June Company. Bro. J. R. Young was present on a visit from the London Conference.

Bro. Young and I stayed over night at Bro. John Hughes'. The weather being very warm, sleep was rendered almost impossible.

Wafod, Pontypidd, Thur., 27 Jan 1842

Received a letter in the morning from Bro. Joseph G. Parry, from Liverpool.

We had been informed last evening by Bro. D. R. Gill, that his niece S. Catherine Coles, could raise means enough to pay half her fare to Salt Lake City, and as we deemed it a pity that she should remain under those circumstances, we repaired to the telegraph office at once, and dispatched the matter to Bro. Jos. H. Parry at Islington. I made my way to Merthyr and left Bro. Young in the office awaiting the reply.

After my arrival in Merthyr I called on the two families that were going to emigrate and marked their luggage, and gave them money (according Bro. Parry's instructions) to pay their way to L-pool.

I wrote a letter from Bro. Edward Heol-gerrig, to Bro. J. H. Parry, on Emigration business.

Heol-gerrig, Merthyr, Friday 28 June.

I saw the two families leaving Merthyr, safe on the train, leaving 9-4 A.M. I procured a ticket for Hereford and rode with them. At Trakers' yard we met, Bros. Gill, neice, and family, Bros. Jenkyn Thomas, and family, A. J. Jones and family and John D. Evans and family. Sister Morgan was also in the Com.

I left them at Hereford rejoicing in their deliverance, and singing the sweet songs of God.

I called at Bro. Robert Johnson's, where I had previously dropped a note announcing my coming. They received me gladly, and extend to me, the hospitalities of the house, and urged on me staying with them over Monday.

In the course of the day I wrote letters to Mother and friend B. Matthews.

In the evening I took a walk through the Town, with the two girls.

Here I met Bro. James Shepard an old member of the Welsh Con., who is at present working in the City and lodging at Bro. Johnsons.

Hereford City, Saturday, 29 June Employed myself through the day, writing letters to W. H. Williams J. F. Howells Ed. Joseph and Thos.
Jones (Malad City) and reading Orson Spencers' letters.

Took a walk through Town in the evening in company with Bro. Johnson, and spent an hour or so listening to a man, selling cheap jewelry and watches, by auction, on the Square.

Hereford City, Sunday 30 July Attended Methodist chapel in the morning with Bros. Sheppard and Johnson.

Wrote a letter in the afternoon to Miss Emily S. Elmore, and in the evening took a walk around the suburbs of the City.

Hereford City, Monday, 1 July In the morning I went to Ladmore and son's, and had my photograph taken, and in the afternoon spent the time reading.

Hereford City, Tuesday, 2 July After four days, good rest and a very pleasant time, I bid the good Johnson's family farewell and started on foot for Aber-gavenny. Bro. Sheppard accom-panied me three miles on the way. After walking twelve miles, I took train and rode the rest of the way into Abergavenny, and held meeting in the evening in Bro. Bez-ant's 11 Tudor St.

Abergavenny, Wednesday 3 July

Left early in the morning and walked to Talymain, and held meeting in the evening with the branch, in Sister James' house. Remained over night at Sister Stephens; Garmdiffaith.

Garmdiffaith, Thursday 4 July

Called at Sister Roach's in the morning, and walked over the Mt. to Abertillery, where I stayed and had dinner with Bro. Scott, after which I pursued the journey again, and walked to Wantyglu, and spent a couple hours with Cousin David. After tea David and I called on Cousin Rachel, Brynmaur. We also called on Uncle John's mother-in-law in the same village.

At a o'clock I left for Tredegar.
Cousin accompanied ^{me} half way.
On my arrival in Tredegar I found out that the Saints were holding open air meeting on the Rhymer Rd. I got to them just in time to join in. I occupied half an hour on the first prin-ciple.

Tredegar, Friday, 5th July.

Spent the forenoon reading and writing in Bro. Jeremiah

Williams; and in the afternoon left for Rhymer calling at Uncle John's on my way. Held meeting in the evening with the branch, in Bro. Charles house, and stayed over night at Bro.
Wm. Thomas.

Rhymney, Saturday, 6 July, 1878 Left immediately after breakfast for Merthyr, walking the distance on foot.
Called at Bro. Ed. Joseph's where I spent the remainder of the day reading and writ-ting. Wrote a letter to Elder Wm. N. Williams.
Lodged over night at Bro. Ed. Edwards Hotel gerrig.

Merthyr Tydfil, Sunday, 7 July Called at the clerks' in the morning and received letters from Elders Jos. H. Parry and Wm. N. Williams, and from there I went to the meeting room, where I met Bros. Thos. F. Howells and John G. Jones.
We met with the priesthood in district Council at 11 A.M. We met with the Saints at 2 and 6-30 P.M. After the evening meeting Bro. Howells and I took a walk on the neighboring hills. We Slept at Bro. Edwards' Hotelgerig.

Hotelgerig, Newlyn, Monday, 8 July.

Called at Bro. Joseph's in the morning and received letters from Bro. W. N. Williams, Sisters Lemira and Rachel and Miss E. I Elmire. Rachel's letter contained news of interviews with Bros. Aaron Thomas and Thos Evans, two young men who had arrived with the first com. of emigrants from this Conference. Also that Sister Lemira and her three little children were with them at the time of writing. Lemira's affectionate letter expressed her pleasure in visiting our old home etc. Emily's letter contained similar news to Rachel's, but lengthily written. I received from her a handkerchief very beautifully initialed, which was sent as a birthday present.

ent, also a handsome photographic group of herself, Mrs. Jos. H. Parry, Mrs. Jos. Bull, Mrs. Geo. R. Emery and Mrs. Eli A. Folland. I answered Rachel's letter in the afternoon, and in the evening Bro. John G. and I took a walk to Pen Gann Idu and held a good open air meeting. After the close of the meeting I returned to Heolgerig.

Heolgerig, Merthyr, Tuesday, 9 July
As I intended leaving Merthyr tomorrow to be absent for some time I spent the forepart of the day visiting some of the Saints and bidding them farewell for a short season. Wrote a letter to Bro. Joseph H. Parry and one to Sister Rachel in which I enclosed two pairs of light silk gloves for which I paid $2\frac{1}{2}$ each.

Spent the evening in Bro. Ed. Joseph's settling up the financial accounts for the month of June.

Geolgerig, Weithup, Wednesday, 10 July Received a letter from Bro. and Sister Bezzant, Abergareenny. After getting all my things gathered together, and everything generally ready, I left for Cwm-bach walking over the mountain.
I called on Bro. Thomas Evans, Sen., who I intended to hold meeting with in the open air, but the weather being too windy, we had to undergo the project. I returned to Sister Philips where I enjoyed a refreshing bath, and a comfortable night's rest.

Cwmbach, Thursday 11 July Spent the major part of the day the upstairs room reading, writing &c.

Late in the afternoon I left for Birwain calling on Bro. Br. Evers who accompanied me. We held a meeting in Bro.
Whitaker's house, where a very good time was enjoyed by all.

Birwain, Friday, July 12. 1878.

Got up very early and left at 8 o'clock for Swansea, walking a distance of 10 miles, and riding eight. Called at Bro.
Pickett's where I was received by the family with their usual kindness and good will. After tea I took a walk to the Town and purchased 30 yds. of French Merino for Miss Esquire for which I gave £3-0-0, money that she had previously forwarded to me for that purpose. When I returned to Father Pickett's, to my surprise I found Bro.

W. H. Williams who had just come in from Carmarthen to meet me to attend Council &c. It gave me much pleasure to meet my old compans--ion and to enjoy his company once more. It had been just four months since I saw him before. Our inten-tion is to leave this place Wednesday -morning for Llanelli and travel to-gether in that direction for some time visiting and preaching wherever we get opportunity amongst strangers and in districts where the Gospel has not been preached for many years.

We enjoyed the evening very pleas-antly conversing with each other on the varid experience we had passed through since we have been seper--ated, and exchanging items of home news &c. We retired to bed very late in the evening.

Swansea, Saturday, July 13, 1878.

Having went to bed so late last night, it was it was nearly 12 o'clock before we came down to breakfast. We spent a few hours in the parlor reading and writing. I wrote a letter to Miss Emily S. Elsmore in which I enclosed samples and prices of cloth &c.

We spent the evening at Mr. Arthur Follands where we enjoyed a very sociable time with the family

Swansea, Sunday, July 14, 1878.

Met with the branch in Council at 11 a.m., also held meetings in the Chapel in the afternoon at 2-30^{pm} in the evening at 6-30. After the Last meeting we all repaired to the sea shore and held a large open air meeting which was addressed by Bro. Moroni Watts, Elder Williams and myself.

Swansea Monday, July 15

Received letters from Bro. Jos. Bull and David Morgan, and three Weekly newspapers. Had breakfast and spent the forepart of the day with Sister Rowe. We called and had tea with William Williams Jr., from where we went to the prayer meeting. Commenced a letter to Bro. Thos. F. Howells.

Swansea, Tuesday, July 16.

We spent the forepart of the day in Bro. Williams, and from there we went to Mrs. Hughes, Sister to Bro. Joseph Matthews wife 19th. Wd.

L.L. City, and spent a very pleasant evening. We also called at the old gentleman his father who has reached a very old age. We called at Mr.
Follans and saw the likenesses of Eli, Rachel and the little boy William Henry, which they received yesterday enclosed in a letter from Eli. The photos were very good.

Swansea, Wednesday, 17 July

Called on a few of our acquaintances in the morning, and left about noon for Wainarlawydd. We called on Mr. John Williams, brother in-law to Bro. Ed. Edwards, Hestgerij.

They treated us very kindly.

In the evening we got a little man to announce that we were going to hold an open air meeting, but through him delaying the time of commencing to publish it, we failed to get a congregation, but we made use of the time however in explaining the principles of Truth, as we had the privilege of meeting and conversing with several of the vil-age. We lodged over night at Mr. Williams.

Wauwatawyad, Thur. 18 July.

Today is the anniversary of the day we left home, and commences the second year away from the Vales of the Mountains - my native home, from whence I was called and set apart to preach the Gos-pel of Jesus Christ to the native land of my parents, as it has been restored in these days and that by the advent of an Holy Angel and through the instru-mentality of the Prophet Joseph Smith, who was called and ordained of God to usher in the last dispensation, and to assist in establishing the Kingdom of God upon the earth, in fullfillment of the predictions of the Holy Prophets and John the Revelator. I have endeavored since I left home to be diligent and faithful in the discharge of my duties, and I feel that the Lord has been with me in all my undertakings, to do his will and keep his commandments. He has blessed me with health and strength and his Holy Spirit of Truth to enlighten ~~to~~ mind upon the principles of the Gospel, and give me freedom in expressing the same to the people. I have had kind friends to administer to wants from time to time, and always a place to lay my head. I realize the hand of Almighty God in all these things, and I feel praise the Holy name for all blessings that I am in the enjoyment of, continually praying for a continuance of the same.

I have enjoyed my years labors exceedingly well, and realize that the great and important experience I have thus gained will be of lasting benefit to me, if properly applied in future life Having applied myself busily to my labors &c., the time seems to have gone very rapidly and pleasantly. Circumstances have been favorable to me, both home and here.

We left the good folks of this place at ten o'clock, and commenced our way for Llanelli. The weather being exceedingly fine and pleasant we spend several hours of our time in resting under the shade of hedges, reading and studying the scriptures. We arrived in Llanelli at 7 o'clock, and after leaving our things at Bro. John Jones, 30 Forge Row, we repaired at once to the centre of The Town, obtained permission from a policeman to preach, informed some of the people on the street and held a good open air meeting. Bro. Williams addressed the meeting first.

and I followed. The audience was attentive and we enjoyed a good Spirit and much freedom in speaking.

Slanelly, Friday, July, 19, 1878.

I spent the forenoon writing &c. Wrote a letter to J. W. Sumner Tracy and one to Jos. H. Paury. In the evening, Bro. W. H. Williams rebaptized Sussannah Williams, daughter to Sister Mary Dasknell.

The weather during the day has been extremely hot and oppressive. I feel the heat much more in this country owing the atmosphere being low and damp.

Slanelly, Saturday, July 20

Wrote a letter to Bro. Geo. Bull Jr. in reply to his, kindly inviting me to come up and sit with him on Christmas. We left at two o'clock for Bro. Ralph Fisher's, Bank Cottage calling at Bro. Hughes' and S. Williams Wain Baglan, on our way. We found Bro. Fisher just beginning to move around on his crutches. He has had a very sad time of it, having been confined to his bed for upwards of four months.

He was pleased to see us, and extended the usual hospitalities of the house to us.

Bank Cottage, Sunday, July 21.

According to previous arrangements we met, to hold meeting at Sister William Coed-y-bairon at 2-30 P.M. Bro. John and William Jones and John Williams from Llanelli were present, also David William from Cumbach. We had a very good little meeting in which an excellent

Spirit was manifest. Bro. Williams addressed the meeting in Welsh and in English.

We left after meeting for Kidwell where we wanted to hold a meeting in the open air, but being strangers in the place we were not aware whether we would be tolerated to do so or not, but as is customary with us under such circumstances, we called to see the Mayor, but we were informed when we called at his residence that he was attending Church.
We couldn't afford to wait until the meetings were out, as we wanted to commence then, so that we could get a congregation.
We hurried as fast as we could to find a suitable place as the time was drawing late. We succeeded in getting a Chair and a place to stand in front of the new Town Hall. Bro. Williams

Commenced with reading the 8 Chap. of the acts, which he also used as a text for his sermon. By the time he had got fairly started the Churches and Chapels let out, and present by the street was full of people, who listened very attentively to his remarks. He occupied about three quarters of an hour. I then mounted the Chair and after speaking a minute or two the Mayor and his Lady drove through the crowd in a large open Carriage.
After the little confusion that it naturally produced, had subsided I resumed my remarks again, dwelling on the effects of the Gospel of Christ, and the fruits of our people. After I had spoken about fifteen minutes, I saw the policeman coming up towards me and in a gruff tone requested us to "move on" "move on from here," I kindly thanked the the people for their attention &c, and after a benediction by Bro. Williams we "moved on," feeling satisfied that we had had as much time as we did, to hear the message of Truth.

We returned to Bank Cottage.

Bank Cottage, 22nd July.

Bro. Williams and I worked the whole of the day in the hay field, raking, pitching, loading &c.
We felt well after our exercise, but naturally a little tired and stiff for not having had such exercise for so long.

Bank Cottage, Tuesday, 23 July

We left after breakfast, on foot for Downyfield, spending a few hours on the way, reading &c. in the shade of the hedges. We got to

Bro. Jones' late in the afternoon. The kind family received us with their usual hearty welcome, which always causes us to feel quite at home.

Swynnyfittir, Wednesday, 24 July.

We left after breakfast for Carnarthen Town and called at the P.O. where we received letters and newspapers from home. I received two letters from Miss E. S. Elmore and one from Eli A. Folland. Bro. Williams and I jointly received two letters from Pres. Jos. H. Parry, giving a brief account of his and George's travels and labors in North Wales, where they are doing a good work in holding open air meetings etc, also requesting us to meet them at Haridol on the 3rd of August.

Brother Eli's letter contained good news from home, and excellent news of dear Mother, himself, wife and little boy. Though on a card I was pleased to see their happy faces whom I have not gazed upon for over a year. Emily's letter was written in the usual pleasant and loving style, the reading of which always causes me much happiness. She also enclosed her photograph and, ^{though} far from being a good one I was pleased to receive it.

At 8 o'clock in the evening, by kind permission of the Chief of Police we held a large and excellent meeting in front of the Town Hall, which is situated on an elevated position at the junction of five of the business Sts. in centre of the Town.

We returned to the Castle Hotel where I wrote an answer to Eli's letter. Bro.
Williams ^{and} I also replied to Bro. Paup's letter.

Carmarthen Town Thurs. 25 July

We spent the forepart of the day redding and writing in the Castle Hotel. I commenced a letter to Sister Lemira.

In the afternoon Bro. Williams and I walked to his Aunts at Cefn Cwth, seven miles from Carmarthen. We were received very kindly.

Cefn Cwth, Mydrim Friday 26 July

After breakfast we were kindly accorded the use of Mrs. Davis's parlour, where we passed the greater part of the day reading and writing.

Cefncriwth, Carmarthen, Saturday
Spent the forepart of the day, as yesterday, reading scriptures and writing up the Journal &c.

In the afternoon we took a walk to St. Clears, about four miles distant, and returned to Mrs. Davis in the evening.

Cefncriwth, Sunday, July 28
We left soon after breakfast for Carmarthen Town, and from there walked to Llangyfelletu where we spent a few hours talking and conversing with the family. We returned in the evening and held a good open air meeting in Carmarthen Town. The audience was moderately large and very atten-tive. We lodged for the night at the Castle inn.

Carmarthen Town, Monday 29 July.

Ate breakfast, paid our Hotel Bill and left on foot for Lampeter. We spent several hours on the way, in reading etc. under the shade, and arrived at Pencader in time for the 8 o'clock train, which we took for Lampeter. Sister Thomas and sons received us in their usual hospitable manner, and secured us lodgings for two nights in the "White Hart".

Lampeter, Tuesday, 30 July.

Wrote letters in the morning to Bro. Luke Bezzant and Edde Jos. Bull.

We spent the afternoon reading. Towards evening we engaged a Tourer Crier to announce that we would preach on the door step of the "Bull-church" at 8 o'clock. Towards the appointed time the people began to assemble in little groups in the street, and at 8 o'clock I commenced with reading the 7 Chap. of St. Matt. on which I spoke for some length, and was followed by Bro. Williams in Welsh. We had a very large attentive, and intelligent congregation. At the close of the meeting we distributed about 25 or 30 tracts. At 11 o'clock we retired to the "White Hart", and enjoyed a comfortable night's rest.

Sampeter, Wednesday, 31 July

We wrote until after dinner, when we we took leave of the kind and hospitable Thomas family, and left on foot for Bro. Ellis Ellis, Cross-Winter farm, which place we found late in the evening, after a tiresome afternoon walk. Bro.
Ellis is a young lately baptized and as his family is very much opposed to the Latter Day Saints, he was obliged to find us lodgings elsewhere, so he walked a couple of miles with us, to a public house at Cilcennin where we obtained lodgings for the night.

~~Wednesday, 31 July~~

We left at 9 o'clock for Aberystwyth, on the turnpike road, and on our way stopped at Hanshyttid and called on Sister Davis, a Latter Day Saint who we
