

David Jenkins is Laid to Rest

The Journal, Logan City, Cache County, Utah
Monday, April 6, 1925

Funeral services for the late David Jenkins were held in the First ward chapel on Sunday and had a good attendance. The speakers and pallbearers of the occasion were all old friends who had known Mr. Jenkins for many years, back to the time when he was actively engaged in business pursuits. The pallbearers were: William Edwards, William Morrell, Jesse Earl, Frank Benson, John Squires and Jas. Smith.

The beautiful musical program included numbers by the choir, vocal solos by Miss Nora Eliason and Frank Baugh, and an organ solo by Mrs. Susie Gates Squires.

Elder Joel Ricks offered the invocation, Bishop A. Jorgensen, Elders N. W. Kimball, Alma Sonne and Bishop William Worley were the speakers who recalled the long and useful life of the departed; his long membership in the church; his early arrival in Utah and in Cache Valley, making him a pioneer in both the state and of Cache county, and the part he had borne in their upbuilding and growth. His devotion to the church; his missionary service and his years of service as an ordinance worker in the Temple were feelingly alluded to. Laudatory reference was made to his family and to the help some of its members had been in ward service. In concluding, Bishop Worley thanked all who had tendered aid or sympathy to the family during the illness or following the death of the departed.
