

Handwritten Note by Sophie Kaestli Jenkins
April 1925, soon after her husband's death

Father took sick Wednesday March 25
Thursday - Dr. Merrill came
Monday Mar. 30 - Dr. Budge came
Was up all day Saturday
Tuesday Dr. Budge came
" I telegraphed Paul and Aunt Frieda
Wednesday - Aunt Frieda came 10⁰⁰
" Dr. came 10⁰⁰
Thursday Budge and Hayward came
" at 10:00 o'clock father died
Those present mother, Ch. Worley, Aunt Frieda
Kurt, J. D. Friday noon Paul
Leslie, Otton arrived, father funeral
Sunday at 12:00 o'clock 1st word chapel

Aunt Frieda left Monday April
6 Paul, Leslie and Otton left for Saint Louis, Missouri Thursday
April 9, 1925 at 2:00 o'clock
noon

Thurs March 19¹⁹²⁵ Father went to Barber shop for the last time

Notes on the final week in the life of

David Jenkins

18 July 1840 - 2 April 1925

(In Sophie Kaestli Jenkins' handwriting)

Father took sick Wednesday, March 25 (1925)

Thursday--Dr. Merrill came

Monday, March 30--Dr. Budge came

Was up all day Saturday

Tuesday Dr. Budge came

“ Telegraphed Paul and Aunt Frieda

Wednesday--Aunt Frieda came 10:00

“ Dr. came 10:00

Thursday Budge and Hayward came

“ at 10:00 o'clock father died

Those present, mother, Bishop Worley, Aunt Frieda, Kurt, J. D.

Friday noon Paul, Leslie, Alton arrived

Father's funeral Sunday 12:00 o'clock 1st ward chapel

Aunt Frieda left Monday April 6

Paul, Leslie and Alton left for Saint Louis, Missouri Thursday April 9, 1925 at 2:00 o'clock noon

Thursday March 19, 1925, Father went to Barbershop for the last time

Notes (2012):

Father

David Jenkins

Mother

Sophie Kaestli Jenkins, wife of David Jenkins

Aunt Frieda

Frieda Kaestli Edmunds, sister of Sophie Kaestli Jenkins

Paul, Leslie and Alton

Sons of David and Sophie K. Jenkins who were all in medical school in St. Louis, Missouri at the time of David's illness

Kurt and J. D.

Sons of David and Sophie K. Jenkins who were living at home with their parents in Logan, Utah